Tuesday, June 6, 1871. No settlement in the colony has a more promising future than Comox. We will not except any. It has all the natural resources of every other settlement,—except gold,—and it may yet turn out that the mountain range that process could lie the whole settlement. The other is that the Douglas is suitable. This is a nautical question that we are at present unable to solve. But it appears reasonable that a steamer like the Enterprise would be more suitable for that purpose than the Douglas. With a real good read to the present landing—and a passilic wharf—alongside of which a steamer could lie the whole settlement. out that the mountain range that pro-tects it from the Pacific Ocean is not only suriferous but argentiferous. Geographically, it is a large district eretening from Qualisum fiver to the north of the attlement. It has some of the finest forests in the colony, and underlying nearly the whole tract are vast bede of hitmainage coal. bituminous coal. Already three or four coal companies have located elaims on Baynes Sound,—one of which is at the or the settlers on the right bank of the river. The latter company have now several men steadily employed in opening the mine. Farther up the settlement, on Brown's river, there are beds of coal that surpass the best coal fields of Nanaimo, in quality and quantity. Fronting on the Gulf of Georgia, it possesses fishers. very mouth of Courtney river, in the rear is, great inconvenience to the settlers,— of the settlers on the right bank of the
and, with had roads, compels them to on the Gulf of Georgia, it possesses fish-eries that are inexhaustible. Already, on Hornby Island, in Comox District there is located the only successful Whaling Company in the colony,-and it only remains for other enterprising parties to engage in whaling, or in taking salmon, dogfish, and other marketable fish, to utilize profitably the whole coast of Comox with fishing stations. The Comox settlement, however, of which every one speaks generally, is the settled district. It spreads itself out on each bank of the Courtney and its tributaries, covering about fifty square miles of the Kirby's Reaper and Mower most fertile soil, without any exception, in the Colony. From the Steamboat Landing, at Mr. Robb's, to Mr. Gordou's, a distance of seven miles, is one contin-uous prairie, skirted by forest on the north, and stretching away to the south across the Courtney and its tributaries, intersected here and there with small groves or belts of sprace, fir, maple, alder, willow, crab-apple, and the or-dinary shrabbery that line the banks of our streams. Within the prairie country, nearly all the land has either been pu:chased or pre-empted,—and farms that a few years ago could have been purchased for a few hundred dollars can only be had Pitt's now for as many thousands. Everywhere through the settlement there is an air of prosperity and contentment visible,—and everywhere the stranger meets with a hearty welcome. The farmers are getting better dwellings better furnished, larger barns, more land under fence, more acres cultivated, more improved farming implements, and more stock, -and what tells well for their industry, they ship more produce to Victoria than any other set-TAILOR & DYER tlement on the coast. The total number of the population of the District, exclu- has taken great pains in trying to get a competent As sive of Indians, according to the census taken on March 1, 1871, was 54 men, 13 Silks, Velvets, Feathers, Damask Curtains, women, 14 boys, and 15 girls. It had also 21 horses, 542 head of borned cattle. and 308 sheep. From this it is evident that the settlement is but in its infancy. When, however, the thousands of acres of rich prairie land that now lie uncultivated are made to yield their annual wealth to the extent of their espacity, Comox will, without exception, be one of the finest, if not the best agricultural sejtlement in the colony. And when the swamps with their alternate ridges of hill that stretch away north, and the bottom lands to the south, are cleared up, in all probability in no one settlement in the co-lony except the Lower Fraser and around Victoria will there be a larger continuous prospects, present and future, the Comoxians have their grievances that crop out everywhere under the head of magis trates, schools, roads, and steam communication. The absurd system that at present prevails of keeping a magistrate at Nanaimo, and a Stipendiary at that to attend to the interests of Comox, distant 75 miles, is very justly denounced. At the very least, there ought to be two other communications are also as the contraction of the communication Honorary Magistrates in the settlement, appointed from among the settlers thempetent men enough to select Magistrates irom; yet they are treated to a Magistrate once a month for one day. The belance of the time, a salaried constable engages in the novel business of preserving order, protecting the revenue, and trading with the settlers and natives. We presume, however, that this grievance will take flight after the new Constitution has been inaugurated, and the people get the reins of power. As to education, the same complaint is made at Comox as elsewhere—that the system is wrong. What is required is, that the school-house shall be built and the schoolmaster provided at the expense of the State. It is roads and steam communication that constitute the greatest grievances. The Land Office plan of sending men all the way from Victoris to eat up all the road money is beyond doubt ob jectionable. Residents competent to construct the bridge over the river at McKelvy's have no chance to tender for it! The bridge-builders must be import-ed! A monstrous idea! The same thing with road-making. But the road and bridge-making system, no doubt, await a change of Government to improve it.

Beyond a bridge at McKelry's, but little will be done this year in Comox. Next year, however, enough money ought to be appropriated to put the road to the Steambeat Landing in such condition that farmers could bring down their produce at any season of the year from all parts of the District. At present it is a mistaken use of the word 'road' to call the high-ways of Comex "roads." In the upper end of the district, a horseman in many please can scarcely get through the mire. That, at least, is a sign of rich land; but,

where the season is so late and the rains

Two ideas prevail at Comox about a steamboat landing. One is that a steamer drawing less water than the Douglas ought to be put on this route, so as to go up the river into the settlement. The other Through from Loudon 12 anchester, Liverpool of Live trips, and that is only $36 Yet Odweeks, because the Government will not risk $36 more a month. The consequence

Several other descriptions manufactured at the Government Factory, Waltham Abbey, have also been tried, but have Factory, Waltham Abbey, have also been tried, but have not afforded the same uniform accuracy of shooting.

There appear to be difficulties, confined, it is believed, to the question of expense, in producing a pawder at Waltham Abbey, in all respects equal to 'Curtis and Harvey, No. 6;' but the Committee, keeping in view the importance of maintaining the great accuracy of shooting of the Martini-Henry rifle, recommend that no provider should be used for its amountaining that powder should be used for its ammunition that does not give results at least equal to those obtained in the Comnittee's experiments, whether such powder be obtain from the Government Factory or from the trade."*

• Messrs. Curtis and Harvey's powder was employed by Mr. Henry during the competition for accuracy of shooting and as the results then attained were satisfac-tory, the Committee have, without making trial of the powder of other manufacturers, continued its use as a standard.

EASTERN STATES. New York, June 3—President Grant yesterday said that the Treaty was fully discussed, and is the best possible settlement of the differences between the United States and Great Britain. It is thought by many that it was rushed through and acted upon without proper consideration on the part of the Gov-ernment. The facts are, every article of the Treaty was submitted to me, after it was adopted by the Commission, and approved by me; and each article was in the same way submitted to the British Cabinet and approved by Ministers of the Crown at once. The Queen has pledged ber signature before-hand; I therefore regard the Treaty as practically ratified. There will be pecuniary considerations, of course. Measures will be adopted on both sides to carry out the provisions of the Treaty. As far as we are con-cerned, we would like to have better terms; but there were two parties to the bargain. The point arrived at was not merely a pecuniary recompense for our losses by the Ala-bama and other cruisers from British ports, but the settlement of disturbing questions likely at any day to bring the two nations into armed conflict. My aim was by this Treaty to secure peace through justice, and I believe I have succeeded. No apprehension need be felt as to the course of the British people, who would regard it as an act of bad three for Her Gracious Majesty, was given faith on their part to reject the Treaty after few miles east of Helena, in Montana, its almost unanimous acceptance by the Sen- and pass through the northern portion ate.
